Prayer at the Altar

Here at First Friends, God works through prayer. We offer different opportunities for prayer at our altar each Sunday. During our musical worship, if you would like to come and pray at the altar in private, we invite you to come to the left side by our cross. If you would like one of our Prayer Team to pray with you, please come to the opposite side (right) of the altar. We will also continue to offer prayer at the end of each service.

Is the Gospel still good news...or is it old news?

Old News? Fake News? Impossible News? In a social media culture overpopulated with the sharing of personal thoughts and opinions, status updates and “retweeted” headlines, it can be difficult to maneuver through the muck and answer the question; what really is “Good News?”

At Christmas time, we hear this phrase “Good News” refer to the exciting announcement and anticipation of Christ’s birth. But is that news still ‘Good’ and relevant for today? Over the next month, the pastoral team at First Friends will be maneuvering this question by delving into God’s Word to see what it has to say about the “Good News” and how it should shape our perspective this Christmas season. The hope is that you and your family will understand not only the important revelation of what God has saved us from and to, but also what He has saved us for, as we are sent into our various “mission fields” of life to proclaim His truth.

Join us as we ask, “Is the Gospel still Good News?”

Today we will be hearing from Ryan Farr, Sports Ministry Pastor.

Pastor Stan Hinshaw, Lead Pastor

Thank You for Considering Others in Worship

Please silence your cell phones during the worship service. Also, if your child becomes restless and loud, the service can be heard in the hall, the women’s restroom nursing room, or you can take your child to one of our excellent church nurseries.

REACHING NEIGHBORS & NATIONS

News from the Holadays at OSU with CRU

Fall Getaway is “24 hours to get away from campus, seek God, and enjoy the fall season together.” Historically, this bi-annual retreat that is hosted at a Christian camp has been a weekend in which many students make significant decisions to walk closely with the Lord in the context of Christian community, as well as live with a posture of neighborly love and mission towards fellow students. That’s why Brian and Alyssa worked hard to sit down with each and every student with whom they’ve connected this year, got to know them more deeply, asked how they were really doing, and personally invited them to Fall Getaway based on how it could help them grow spiritually and mature in Christ. This year’s getaway was another significant weekend of teaching, prayer, fellowship, worship, food, and fun. Mike Erre, an Ohio native, former California pastor, and friend of the CRU movement, spoke and taught on the beauty and power of Jesus. They had more students than ever gather: about 400. Alyssa and Brian also had more student leaders whom they mentor from their action groups as well as students whom they lead from their small groups than have ever come with them: 35! Pray for the 35 to continue to grow and thrive in their spiritual journeys!

Now there is great gain in godliness with contentment. For we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content 1 Tim 6:6-8 ESV
